

A BARK PAINTING from Arnhem Land shows two kangaroos, a marsupial rat, a goanna, an emu, a long-necked turtle, and a straw bag with yams and roots sticking out. The painting was done on the prepared inside surface of the bark of a Eucalyptus tree. Paints consist of red and yellow ochre, pipe clay, and charcoal mixed with water and the juice of orchids.